

802051 (R00452) 6-92

Macedonia has proclaimed independent statehood, but has not been formally recognized as a state by the United States.

Serbia and Montenegro have asserted the formation of a joint independent state, but this entity has not been formally recognized as a state by the United States.