

United Kingdom Administrative Divisions

-  International boundary
-  First-order administrative division boundary
-  National capital
-  Administrative seat

Administrative units not named have the same name as their seats.

Units are known as counties in England and Wales and as districts in Northern Ireland. Scotland has nine regions and three island areas. Mid Glamorgan and Gwent share Newport as their county seat. Northumberland and Tyne and Wear share Newcastle upon Tyne as their county seat. The seat of Surrey County is Kingston. Belfast is the seat of Castlereagh District.

The Isle of Man is a British crown dependency.
